CLAY FIRE RESPONDS TO BASEMENT FIRE

On August 26, 2016 at approximately 2:30 A.M. Clay Fire units were dispatched to the 17,000 block of Darden Rd. for a reported basement fire. Fire crews arrived on scene quickly to find a fire in the basement of a two story home. Crews were able to quickly place water on the fire and contain it to the area in which the fire started. The cause of the fire is believed to be from an appliance that malfunctioned. There were 4 occupants home at the time of the fire and no injuries reported. The occupants were alerted to the fire because of working smoke detectors in the home.
