House Fire in the 20500 Block of Old Mill Rd.

Clay Fire Territory was dispatched to the 20500 block of Old Mill Rd, for a report of a house fire just after 10 pm Sunday Night. Firefighter quickly arrived to find a well involved attached garage fire. All of the occupants had been able to safely escape the house prior to the Fire Departments arrival. The fire was brought under control within minutes and contained to the garage and second floor attic space. The siding on the neighbor's house next door was also damaged due to the radiant heat of the fire. No injuries to the occupants or Firefighters were reported. The cause of the fire is still under investigation, but appears to have started in the garage.
